

19 October 1964

Colonel White:

[REDACTED] of General Carter's office, called to say that she received a call from General Gaskill who wanted to talk to General Carter. He said that he knew General Carter and that he was now with General Olmstead's organization which operates 26 banks throughout the country. He wanted to know whether we have a bank in our building and whether we wanted one.

STATINTL

According to the city directory, he works for the Financial General Corporation. Bernice told him that she would ask you to return his call in General Carter's absence.
